School Employees are trained to:

- Retain documentation of immunizations
- Use discretion when discussing outbreaks, avoid sharing any information that might identify victims
- Cooperate with, and take direction from, health authorities